

Call for Glass Artists

The Gateway Gallery, an artists' cooperative located at the Hill High Orchard Building in Round Hill, Virginia, currently has thirty members, including artists who specialize in painting, photography, fiber arts, pottery, jewelry, woodturning, pewter and sculpture.

We are looking for new members or consignors who specialize in artistic functional or decorative glass. Glass media include stained glass, fused, slumped and molded glass, blown glass, and sculptural lampwork. At this time, we are not seeking artists who specialize in lampwork beads.

Applications should be received by September 5. All applications will be reviewed by our Standards Committee, which will make recommendations to the cooperative's Board of Officers. Applicants will be notified of the Board's decision by September 30.

Among those recommended by the Standards Committee, priority will be given to artists who apply for membership in the cooperative. Applications to sell on consignment are limited to artists who would be unable to fulfill the requirements of membership (such as staffing the gallery) because they live too far away or for other good reasons.

Information about membership and consignment, and the application forms, are available on our website at www.thegatewaygallery.com. Please review the Membership Agreement and/or the Consignment Agreement before applying! Basically:

- Members are required to gallery-sit at least three four-hour shifts every four weeks, participate in at least one committee, pay monthly dues of $30, and contribute 20% of monthly sales as commission toward the gallery's expenses.
- Consignors are responsible for delivery of items to the gallery and the expense of returning unsold items, and pay a 40% commission on monthly sales.

How to apply: Please mail the appropriate application and photos of a representative sample of your work to The Gateway Gallery, PO Box 7, Round Hill, VA 20142. Photos may be submitted by email to info@thegatewaygallery.com.

Membership applications must include a check payable to The Gateway Gallery for the first two month's dues ($60.00) which will be returned if the application is not accepted; if accepted, new members also pay a one-time entrance fee of $100.00.

Questions? Send an email to info@thegatewaygallery.com
